Online Webinar

2:00pm - 3:00pm EDT

"Specific Activities Top Loan Officers Are Doing And Scripts They Are Using"

presented by Carl White

Join FAMP and Carl White of The Mortgage Marketing Animals for an informative webinar on June 27, 2018 at 2pm EDT.

During this 100% content live streaming class, you will get a "behind the curtain" view of step by step action items that a group of top loan officers are doing.

You will see the specific activities that they do each day during the week, what they say and who they say it to get more loans coming in the front door with zero cold calling.

You will also see what activities they do compared to the activities that their assistants do, and how to get a first rate assistant, if you don't have one yet, even if you think you can't afford one.

Nothing is being sold, pitched, or promoted, this is 100% content for FAMP members and friends.

Cost for this webinar is FREE for Professionals Members; $10 for Associate Members and $25 for Non-members.
