CC IG Snap Chat: "How Are You Coping With Covid-19"?

online using zoom

12:00 - 12:45 pm

Darlene Johnson-Bignotti,

dxjohnso@oaklandcc.edu

In this ever changing climate of uncertainty, are you wondering how other libraries are serving their students? Want to share your own successes or challenges? Maybe you just need to talk to someone who is over the age of seven? Join us for our next Community College Interest Group Snap Chat on Monday, March 30, noon to 12:45pm, via Zoom.

Not to be confused with the popular social app, this series of casual and snappy sessions will provide CC librarians with an opportunity to exchange ideas and network. University and College librarians are also welcome to attend!

Registration is not required; see the invite below to attend by video, phone, or chat!

Great Lakes Science Boot Camp for Librarians
July 15-17, 2020
Ohio State University
Columbus, OH

Please save the date (July 15-17, 2020) for the Great Lakes Science Boot Camp for Librarians! This immersive 2 ½ day conference offers librarians an opportunity to learn about current research advancements in science. The Great Lakes Science Boot Camp will strive to cultivate an ongoing learning community of librarians providing research support for scientists. Whether you work with medical researchers, engineering undergrads, or physicists looking for the next nanoparticle, you'll find something of interest at GLSBC 2020

Registration will open in Spring 2020.

Adult Learners: Tailoring Library Services
MSU Libraries
366 W. Circle Drive
East Lansing, MI 48824

8:30 am - 3:00 pm

In our ongoing partnership, the Michigan Health Sciences Libraries Association (MHSLA) and the Michigan Academic Library Association (MiALA) invite you to our first ever joint MHSLA/MiALA pop-up conference! Join us to learn about how academic, academic medical, and hospital libraries around the state are tailoring library services to meet the needs of our adult learners. The day will feature a three-hour continuing education course on generational learners followed by two panel discussions on teaching learners at different education levels and methods for accommodating learners through our collections, services, and more!
