- December 2, 2017 Circle of Trees, Holiday Lights Gathering
Woodmere Art Museum
9201 Germantown Avenue
Philadelphia, PA 19118
5:30
Join your friends and neighbors at Woodmere Art Museum at 9201 Germantown Avenue for the annual Circle of Trees Celebration. Circle of Trees starts at 5:30 p.m. and you can enjoy hot chocolate, cider and cookies, music with the St. Thomas Church Choir and Norwood-Fontbonne Academy Chorale, goodie bags for the kids, and a visit from (shhhhh!) Santa too, who arrives on an antique fire truck Together we count down to the lighting of the Art Museum and Christmas trees. Kids also have a blast climbing on the hay maze on the front lawn under the lights. It's also the time to show that Chestnut Hill Cares-give a toy, share a book and feel the joy. Come to the event with a new unwrapped toy or a new or gently used book to donate to a school-aged child. Circle of Trees is presented by the Chestnut Hill Business District, the Chestnut Hill Community Association, and the Woodmere Art Museum. Enjoy all of the wonderful Holidays on the Hill events throughout the season! Visit the Chestnut Hill Business District for a complete listing of Holiday on the Hill activities

Holiday season is a time to relive cherished traditions, and for Chestnut Hill, there is no better tradition than spending a day enjoying the Holiday House tour. Our annual tour features five of the area's loveliest historic homes decorated inside and out for the holidays. Attendees have the option of riding our event trolley from stop to stop or visiting at their own pace in this self-guided tour. Get into the Holiday Spirit with a day spent touring a variety of dramatic homes and find inspiration for your Holiday celebrations, while experiencing the rich architectural heritage of Chestnut Hill. This event is a major fundraiser for our association and helps us provide services to our community.
