PACCA Webinar: Writing & Publishing Books with Children

Are you looking for something new and exciting to try with your child care program? Join us to learn how one family child care home has begun writing and publishing their own children's books! Along the way, the children have learned not only great literacy skills, but also things as varied and important as:

*Developing and delivering presentations to groups
Collaborating with other children and other organizations
Budgeting and fund-raising
Appreciating diversity
Using social media in a positive way*

...and much more! Sue James, owner of STAR 4 Karen James Family Child Care Home will lead us through a discussion of how she and the children in her program became involved in this ongoing special work.

2018 Early Childhood Summit

Penn Stater Conference Center

215 Innovation Blvd

State College, PA 16803

The Early Childhood Education Summit provides early care and education practitioners, parents and advocates from across the early learning and school-age spectrum – Child Care, Head Start, Early Intervention, Pre-K Counts, Home Visitation, and School Districts – an opportunity to dialogue and learn while building a stronger early learning community. The program includes more than two hundred workshop sessions, inspiring keynotes, and opportunities for personal and professional growth. Attendees can not only acquire new information, but can also connect with colleagues and enhance relationships with others in the early childhood field.
