WILD is excited to announce our partnership with EQDerivatives, Inc to promote their Women in Multi-Asset initiative at EQD Events. Starting with Europe EQD in Barcelona on Jan. 26-27, 2026, WILD will be joining EQD Events for their Women in Multi-Asset sessions.

Europe EQD 2026 is the largest multi-asset, volatility and cross-asset systematic investing forum for institutional investors. Buyside derivative players from across Europe connect in Barcelona to start the year with an immersive exploration of strategies and innovative products. This year, sessions will feature exclusive presentations and panel discussions from leading researchers, portfolio managers and industry practitioners in quantitative strategies. Tap into new opportunities across multi-asset investing, volatility, tactical asset allocation and global macro, as well as the latest systematic approaches to alternatives, commodities and illiquid assets.
