

Economic Response and Restart

Teleconference for EDOs & Local Leaders

Thursday, June 11th at 3:00pm PST

This Week: Hon. Michelle Mungall,
Minister of Jobs, Economic Development and Competitiveness

Q&A with Minister Michelle Mungall

Thursday, June 11, 2020 - 3:00pm to 4:00pm PST

Speaker:

Hon. Michelle Mungall, Minister of Jobs, Economic Development and Competitiveness

Michelle Mungall was the first woman elected as MLA for Nelson-Creston in 2009 and re-elected in 2013 and 2017. In 2002, she was elected to Nelson City Council – the youngest person ever.

On January 22, 2020 she was appointed Minister of Jobs, Economic Development and Competitiveness. She previously held the position as Minister of Energy, Mines and Petroleum Resources.

Her university studies and her career in community development have led her to champion social justice and financial security. Prior to entering politics, she worked in the non-profit sector to reduce poverty and support people in crisis. Internationally, she worked at YMCA Zambia, helping to improve the lives of girls with HIV/AIDS and has volunteered as an election observer in two Ukraine elections.

Also joining the call to share best practices will be:

- Darren Brewer, City of Cranbrook
- Rose Klukas, City of Campbell River
- Amy Reid, City of Quesnel
- Jack Stevenson & Mike Gilbert, Northern Rockies Regional Municipality
